Next week we will celebrate the Lord's Supper. There will be no Junior Church.

Next week Pastor James will begin a new series in the morning service entitled "Christ is Better: A Study through the Book of Hebrews". His first message will be on Hebrews 1:1-3, "God has Spoken in His Son, Pt. 1". You are encouraged to read through the book of Hebrews in preparation for the new series.

Please join us in the evening service for a new series entitled "For Such a Time as This: A Study Through the Book of Esther".

Plan to meet at the church at 7 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 4 for the Snow Day at Frazier Park. Bring a brown bag lunch, warm clothes and things to play with in the snow.

We will be hosting Presbytery this Friday and, perhaps Saturday. We need snack type foods—cookies, fruit, quick bread. Let Dale Overduin. know what you will bring.

Plan to join us for the New Members Dinner on Saturday, Feb. 25.

The OPC will be sending teams to Japan to help with the rebuilding i.e. repairing the walls of the Sendai Church and transforming a former dental office into a Ministry Relief Center. Teams will be going from mid February through the end of April. There will be teams of 5 who will work for 2 weeks per team. They will fly out on a Friday and fly back 2 weeks later. The cost is $2500. It is hoped that team members will be able to raise at least half of the cost, but the OPC Diaconal Fund will cover whatever remaining need there is. The work involves rough carpentry, electrical, plumbing, hanging sheetrock, finish carpentry etc. If you have experience with this type of work and are willing to contribute a few weeks of your time contact David Nakhla at nakhla.1@opc.org. If you want to read the entire email, it is on the bulletin board in Fellowship Hall.
